

Prism eSolutions' equation® ASP software was created to support ISO certification. Since its inception, the software has expanded to include not only support for ISO but also support for compliance and business management processes. The value and functionality of equation® ASP continues to grow. In a recent 30-day period this dynamic business tool logged 18,206 users online accessing roughly 147,957 pages of information.

We have helped many of our clients find ways to use equation® ASP beyond the quality certification program. This powerful management tool can enhance your business needs!!

Some of the finest sports and entertainment venues in the country use equation® ASP's Ready Track Incident Management module to track incidents at their sites by severity, progress to resolution and notifications. Ready Track provides graphs, heat maps, and "at-a-glance" results. A major university expanded its athletic department's use of Ready Track beyond games and events to include their Campus Police Department.

A major provider of refurbished GE CT & MRI scanners, maintenance services and parts uses equation® ASP as a tool for dispatching engineers to install and service medical imaging equipment. They also use the application for sales management and lead tracking for new business.

A Native American Tribe in the southwestern United States uses equation® ASP to track land ownership, leases, rights of way and improvements.

One of the world's major suppliers of specialty long steel at first used equation® ASP to manage their multiple ISO systems. Since then, they have expanded their use to include the management of non-employee physical access control.

The world's leading manufacturer of water and foam tanks for the fire service industry began using equation® ASP as a quality management system. They have since broadened their use of the system and currently use the Data Forms module of to track facility injuries and data related to these injuries. Using the application to track injury data has given them the ability to monitor real time results based on injuries as they occur at their various plants.

Twenty-four Andy Frain Services auditors are stationed at 14 airports around the U.S. and Japan where they use equation® ASP to perform cabin cleaning and maintenance inspections for one of the world's largest airlines. Use of the application allows the client to view and analyze audit reports and heat maps in real time.

Another major U.S. airline, with an extensive international and domestic network, finds equation® ASP the perfect solution to their need for timely reporting of results of cabin service cleaning audits. The airline's auditors also use equation® ASP to report and track aircraft turn time analytics and inspections.

The world's largest express transportation company handles more than 3.6 million shipments each business day. Equation® ASP helps them store and track customer feedback. Using this software, they generate on-line questionnaires, track results, and segment geographically.

A leading aviation training company uses equation® ASP to store more than 98,000 documents such as training processes and manuals for various types of aircraft. They also use the Document, Improvement, and Audit Modules to ensure the quality of their training and processes.